

February - August

Sunday Nights @ 10pm

February 7

Night of the Living Dead, 1968 (B&W)

The classic zombie movie, and one of the most terrifying films ever made.

February 14

Destroy All Planets, 1968 (Color)

Giant monsters battle for conquest of Earth. Gamera the Giant Turtle comes to the rescue.

February 21

Carnival of Souls, 1962 (B&W)

A girl survives a car crash only to be haunted by a ghost. Very creepy!

February 28

Screaming Skull, 1958 (B&W)

A husband brings his new wife to his home and attempts to drive her mad with terror that he provides.

March 7

Terror Creatures from the Grave, 1966 (B&W)

A woman is married to an occult scientist who summons creatures from the grounds of their Gothic castle. Stars Barbara Steele.

March 14

A Boy and His Dog, 1975 (Color)

Stars Don Johnson of "Miami Vice" fame in this post-apocalypse tale of a boy and his telepathic dog.

March 21

Godzilla vs. Megalon, 1966 (Color)

Lots of Godzilla action in this one as the big guy takes on his usual enemies with the help of a giant robot - tons of fun!

March 28

The Fast and the Furious, 1955 (B&W)

A prisoner who was wrongly convicted escapes and must avoid the law and prove his innocence. Great driving sequences!

April 4

Little Shop of Horrors, 1960 (B&W)

Hysterical original comedy with Jack Nicholson about a guy with a very demanding houseplant.

April 11

They Saved Hitler's Brain, 1963 (B&W)

Ok, they saved it - now what are they going to do with it? Perhaps the best Hitler brain movie ever!

April 18

The Ghost, 1963 (Color)

A beautiful young wife murders her older husband and is haunted by his ghost who seeks revenge. Stars Barbara Steele.

April 25

House on Haunted Hill, 1958 (B&W)

Horror classic with Vincent Price. A group of guests try to spend the night in a haunted house.

May 2

Horror Hotel, 1960 (B&W)

Horror great Christopher Lee is a sinister teacher who urges his female students to learn witchcraft in a big way. Very spooky!

May 9

White Zombie, 1940 (B&W)

Plantation owner creates a workforce of murderous zombies. Stars Bela Lugosi, a horror classic.

May 16

This is Not a Test, 1962 (B&W)

Chilling look at 1950s America after a Soviet atomic attack - very far-gone, and very disturbing.

May 23

First Spaceship on Venus, 1959 (Color)

A UN team travels to Venus and encounters strange beings - good sci-fi.

May 30

Reefer Madness, 1936 (B&W)

A 1930s film designed to warn the world about the dangers of reefer - so misguided it's hilarious!

June 6

Santa Claus Conquers the Martians, 1964 (Color)

Santa Claus is kidnapped by Martians and manages to free himself and bring the spirit of Christmas to Mars. It could happen...

June 13

Scrooge, 1935 (B&W)

Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" brought to life, with an impressive Sir Seymour Hicks as Scrooge.

June 20

Santa Claus, 1959 (Color)

As demented a version of the Jolly One as you are about to find. Badly acted, badly dubbed, and yet loveable in its ineptness.

June 27

Jessie James Meets Frankenstein's Daughter, 1965 (Color)

Jessie James and friends are injured in a gunfight and brought to a very strange doctor for treatment!

July 4

Plan 9 from Outer Space, 1959 (B&W)

Considered by many to be the worst film ever made. The story of grave robbers from space is an Ed Wood classic. Stars Bela Lugosi and Tor Johnson.

July 11

King Kong vs. Godzilla, 1962 (Color)

A true heavyweight title fight between monster legends. Don't miss this one - it's pure sci-fi fun!

July 18

High School Big Shot, 1959 (B&W)

A tough new kid moves into town and attempts to run the local high school through intimidation. Who says kids today lack ambition?

July 25

Son of Godzilla, 1969 (Color)

Godzilla and son team up to fight the usual suspects on Monster Island - fun for all ages!

August 1

The Devil's Hand, 1962 (B&W)

A man makes a deal with the Devil and lives to regret it. This kind of thing just never works... Memo: deal with the Devil - BAD!

August 8

Assassin of Youth, 1936 (B&W)

A young reporter infiltrates a marijuana smuggling ring in a small town.!

