

OCTOBER THROUGH DECEMBER

Movie Schedule

Off
Beat
Cinema™

Join Zelda, Maxwell and Bird every Saturday at 2:00am on WKBW-TV Channel 7 for the most far-gone movies ever made! Visit www.offbeatcinema.com to meet the beatniks and see cool clips & photos!

October 3

The Ghost, 1963 (Color)

A beautiful young wife murders her older husband and is haunted by his ghost who seeks revenge. Stars Barbara Steele.

October 10

The Terror, 1963 (Color)

Haunted castles, ghosts, thunder and lightning – and it stars Jack Nicholson and Boris Karloff – perfect for a spooky October night like this!

October 17

Mr. Sardonicus, 1961 (B&W)

A greedy grave robber digs up his father's grave to see if he was clutching a winning lottery ticket. As a result, the sons face freezes in horror! Was it because daddy missed the mega-ball numbers? Watch this 1961 classic to find out! Directed by the legendary William Castle.

October 24

Last Man on Earth, 1964 (B&W)

A terrifying film that stars Vincent Price. The story of the only survivor of a virus, who must battle zombies on a nightly basis. Don't watch this one alone!

October 31

Night of the Living Dead, 1968 (B&W)

The classic zombie movie, and one of the most terrifying films ever made. Directed by George Romero.

November 7

D.O.A., 1949 (B&W)

Original classic! Film Noir at its best. A man must solve a murder – his own. Stars Edmund O'Brien.

November 14

She Creature, 1956 (B&W)

A hypnotist can make his beautiful assistant travel back in time and turn into a prehistoric creature who he uses to kill his enemies.

November 21

Bloodlust, 1961 (B&W)

Maniac kidnaps and hunts people on his private estate. This is a remake of another Off Beat Cinema movie called "The Most Dangerous Game."

November 28

Embryo, 1976 (Color)

A scientist learns how to grow people from fetus to adult with amazing speed – but something is very wrong.

December 5

Things To Come, 1936 (B&W)

The movie version of the sci-fi classic by H.G. Wells. A cautionary tale about war with tremendous special effects.

December 12

Scrooge, 1935 (B&W)

Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" brought to life, with an impressive Sir Seymour Hicks as Scrooge.

December 19

Santa Claus Conquers the Martians, 1964 (Color)

Santa Claus is kidnapped by Martians and manages to free himself and bring the spirit of Christmas to Mars. It could happen...

December 26

Plan 9 From Outer Space, 1959 (B&W)

A celebration of the 50th anniversary of what many have called, "The Worst Movie Ever Made." Stars Bela Lugosi and Tor Johnson.

on DVD!

THE BEST OF OFF BEAT CINEMA

Over 90 minutes of way-gone Beatnik Fun!

Order yours NOW!

Send a check for $9.99 (+$2 for shipping & handling) to:

Off Beat Merchandise
P.O. Box 905
Buffalo, NY 14205